

1 317 W 10th Street
Built 1926
French Revival

2 220 W 10th Street
Built 1913
Craftsman

3 200 W 10th Street
Built 1926
Tudor Revival

4 111-113 W 11th Street
Built 1905
Colonial Revival

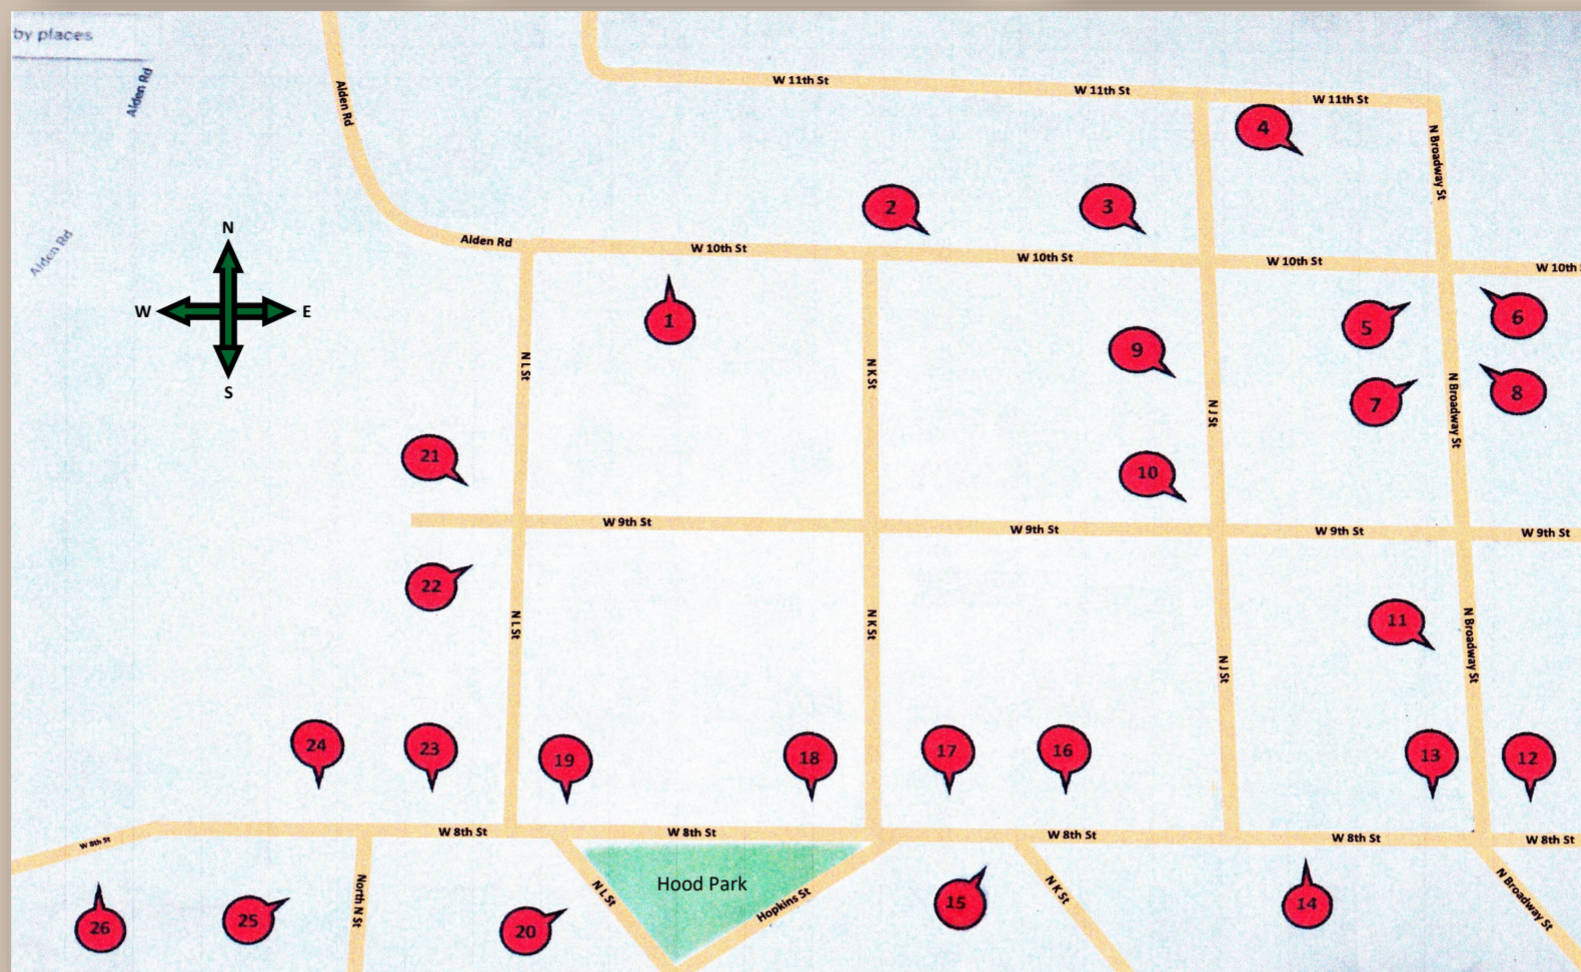

5 1119 N Broadway
Built 1900
Neo-Classical

21 1103 North L Street
Built 1911
Craftsman

22 1019 North L Street
Built 1914
Craftsman

6 1120 N Broadway
Built 1928
Dutch Colonial

7 1111 N Broadway
Built 1921
Greek Revival

23 400 W 8th Street
Built 1912
Tudor Revival

17 218 W 8th Street
Built 1958
Mid-Century Modern

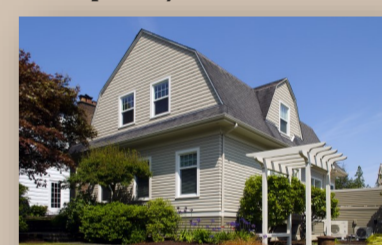

13 1005 N Broadway
Built 1906
Federal Revival

9 1115 North J Street
Built 1921
Colonial Revival

8 1114 N Broadway
Built 1906
Four Square/Dutch Colonial

24 412 W 8th Street
Built 1911
Greek Revival

18 300 W 8th Street
Built 1926
Colonial Revival

14 109 W 8th Street
Built 1907
Four Square

10 202 W 9th Street
Built 1923
Federal Revival

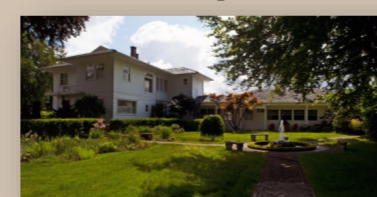

25 505 W 8th Street
Built 1930
Tudor Revival

19 320 W 8th Street
Built 1917
Craftsman

15 201 W 8th Street
Built 1900
Four Square

11 1019 N Broadway
Built 1925
Federal Revival

26 519 W 8th Street
Built 1930
Tudor Revival

20 903 North L Street
Built 1907
Prairie

16 214 W 8th Street
Built 1906
Four Square

12 102 E 8th Street
Built 1904
Eastern Brick & Shingle

Outside of this walking tour are other historic neighborhoods with their own populations of beautiful homes. The 26-room, 9,800+sq. ft. Aberdeen Mansion pictured above, located at the corner of 5th and M, is one example. Follow the signs on Heron and Wishkah to Arnold Hill and the Broadway District, and Summer or Simpson and Scammell to Scammell Hill

*"As one of the oldest cities in Washington, Aberdeen's rich and layered history is still evident today in the variety of historic and cultural resources that exist in the city."

Aberdeen, Washington Historic Preservation Plan, Brum & Associates and Thomason and Associates (2014)*

Commissioned By
www.OurAberdeen.com

SPONSORS

Grays Harbor County
 Department of Tourism

COAST TITLE & ESCROW

For more history
 about these houses, go to:
www.aberdeenbeautifulandhistorichomes.com

Drone Photo by:
 Harbor Video - 818-917-8358
 Photography by:
 Robert Esposito - 360-533-6270
 Brochure Created By:
 Vicki Garrett - 702-575-9913

Aberdeen, WA

A Walking Tour of Historic Broadway Hill

This neighborhood, as it exists today, was developed between 1900 and 1930. Its architectural styles reflect the areas from which settlers came and the tastes of the time.